

I will discuss Lorentzian surfaces admitting a flow of isometries. Several interesting geometric structures appear in this context, both locally and globally. This is a joint work with Pierre Mounoud.