This talk will most probably be about pants decompositions on surfaces and the lengths of their curves.